HOLUALOA 1ST & 2ND MAUKA, Holualoa, HI

Located at approximately 2,900' elevation, this relatively unspoiled property features generous soil and an assortment of native foliage, including abundant mature Ohia trees. There is also plenty of new growth Koa including larger trees in the back forest.About 6 acres is planted in somewhat neglected Kona coffee. When the coffee previously maintained, it yielded exceptionally well flavored high altitude Kona coffee.Make this your dream get-a-way. No CCRs. This would be an excellent Koa reforestation property. Prime Koa wood has been grown and harvested on the property in the past.
