PUNA BEACH PALISADES, Pahoa, HI

Puna Beach Palisades is that hidden gem of a neighborhood overlooking the coastline of Lower Puna. Pride of Ownership is evident on every street. Azure skies, cobalt waters, mild temperatures and comforting breezes: ideal for year-round enjoyment. There's no better place to plan your retreat. Remotely located enough to assure peace and tranquility. Thoughtfully located enough to assure convenience and practicality. Five minutes to Kalapana. Fifteen minutes to Pahoa's shopping and restaurants, and only a little further to Hilo where just about anything can be found (UH Hilo, The Hilo International Airport, government offices, etc.). MacKenzie State Park and Uncle Robert's are nearby. The black sands and surf of Kehena Beach are practically across the street. Paved roads allow for easy access and a comfortable drive all the way to the property where you are greeted by Triangle Palms that line the street, marking the front boundary. The interior of the lot is just as impressive: relatively flat with patches of lava rock, grass, wild orchids, ferns, and ohia trees. A little bit of everything Hawaii - and it can be yours.
