NANAWALE ESTATES SUBDIVISION,
Pahoa, HI

This exceptional parcel of land is tucked away toward the bottom of Nanawale Estates, waiting for you to find it. Old Hawaii is still here. Birds, tropical vegetation, rain, sun. Easy paved road access. The local climate is ideal for growing food and decorative tropical plants: plentiful rain and an abundance of sunshine. The Nanawale Estates neighborhood amenities include a community pool and large park for the residents' private use. Nanawale Estates is ideally located close to Pahoa Town and all of its conveniences: restaurants, cafes, coffee shops, grocery stores, post office, emergency services, and schools. The natural beauty is rivaled by few places on the planet (MacKenzie State Recreational Area on the cliffs above the Pacific Ocean, Kehena Black Sand Beach, Pohoiki, and Kalapana, just to name a few places of interest). Keaau Town, Volcanoes National Park, and Hilo are close enough to lend their conveniences: beaches, parks, galleries, government offices, the University of Hawaii Hilo, and the Hilo International Airport are among the "city" perks just a short distance away.
