FERN FOREST VACATION ESTATES,
Volcano, HI

Welcome to your new home, ready for you to create a home and homestead exactly how you want it. Nestled in the middle of Fern Forest Vacation Estates, this lot and the one next to it offer you 6 acres of almost total possibility! These lots are cooler and more centrally located for access to both the West and East sides of the Big Island. There is good likelihood of mountain views as both lots are lightly wooded, making them easier to manage as well. Each lot is 125 ft wide by about 1044 deep.

Seller prefers to sell both together, but will consider selling just one. Your choice to be self-sustainable, on grid, or combination, this area also has high-speed fiber optic connections--perfect for remote work--best of both worlds!

Please see attached addenda for plat map, flood zone X, (best it gets on island), lava zone 3, HELCO fee, additional disclosures, and approximate elevation of 2307 ft. on the road in front of the lots. Seller has never seen the lots; no sellers disclosure.
