Residential on 0.37 Acres

KEALAKEKUA, Captain Cook, HI

Step into a rare piece of Hawaiian history. Nestled directly along the iconic shores of Kealahou Bay, this unique oceanfront property offers unobstructed views of the Captain Cook Monument and the pristine waters of one of the most culturally and ecologically significant bays in the Hawaiian Islands. Located in the heart of South Kona, this home captures the essence of old Hawai'i, with sunset views, gentle ocean breezes, and a near-perfect launching point for kayaking, snorkeling, or simply watching the dolphins pass by. The lot is generously sized at over 16,000 square feet and provides direct water access—a true rarity on the Big Island. Whether you envision restoring this property to its original charm, reimagining it with a full renovation, or building new on this exceptional lot, the possibilities are as expansive as the ocean views. Buyer to independently verify all permits, zoning, and future use potential. Property is offered. Buyer and buyer's agent are strongly advised to conduct thorough due diligence with the County of Hawai'i, Department of Health, Planning Department, and other appropriate agencies to confirm compliance, usage limitations, and any requirements for future permitting or renovations.
