0 Bedroom, 0.00 Bathroom,
Residential on 2.00 Acres

FERN ACRES, Mountain View, HI

Tucked away on two wooded acres, this off-grid retreat offers privacy, comfort, and modern living surrounded by native forest. Built in 2018, the home features an open studio layout with vaulted ceilings, tasteful finishes in neutral tones, and a full kitchen with stainless appliances including a gas range and microwave.

The bathroom is wheelchair accessible and fully finished. A new ramp leads to an extended lanai, creating easy access and additional outdoor space.

Power is supplied by a well-maintained solar system with 12 panels, 8 batteries, and an Outback inverter, all housed in a dedicated concrete utility shed. There's also a large catchment tank, propane setup, and on-demand hot water system already in place.

A portion of the land has been cleared for the home and driveway, leaving the rest untouched for you to shape as you like. Located in the cooler climate of Fern Acres, this peaceful property blends off-grid living with comfort and style.
