COOK'S LANDING, Captain Cook, HI

Perched on the slopes of Mauna Loa with a bird's eye view down to the coast stands this lovely plantation home in Cook's Landing. The fire station, Amy Greenwell's Botanical Gardens, grocery and hardware stores and restaurants, Yano Hall and Greenwell Park are some of the town conveniences just short distances away from this home. Solid metal roof, photo-voltaic panels, attached covered carport and storage area, lots of room to landscape, and views make this plantation home so much more than the original, beloved & celebrated coffee shacks still dotting the landscape in the heart of Captain Cook and Kona coffee country!

Built in 1990
