UALAKAA, Honolulu, HI

Offered for the first time in over 80 years, this iconic home designed by renowned architect Vladimir Ossipoff is a rare opportunity to own a piece of Honolulu history. Perched in a prime location with sweeping city and ocean views, this cherished residence has been lovingly maintained by one family for generations.

Enjoy the elegance of timeless design, highlighted by large picture windows that frame stunning vistas and fill the home with natural light. The property features a saltwater pool, a cabana with a wet bar—perfect for entertaining—and a freshly painted exterior with a newer roof and solar system.

The main home remains largely in its original condition, offering a unique chance to restore or modernize a true architectural gem. In addition, the ohana unit can be rented for approximately $2,500 per month or used as extra space for extended family.

Ideally located just across from Punahou School and near the University of Hawai‘i, this spacious 1/3-acre lot also presents significant redevelopment potential for those seeking a custom build in one of Honolulu’s most desirable neighborhoods.
