KUKUIULA PARCEL I - AEPO NEI, Koloa, HI

Aepo Nei, beloved night trade winds. Hawaiians have hundreds of specific names for makani, winds. Most inspired by specific places and characteristics, illustrating their keen observation powers, and deep spiritual connection to the surrounding elements and natural processes. As part of an ancient ahupuaʻa™ that stretches from the mountain to the ocean, this centrally located, elevated enclave with sweeping views, offers all you™ need to sustain a full and spirited life. From the generously proportioned homesites where you can craft the ideal island home, to the network of hiking and biking trails that lead to the abundant world-class amenities of Kukui™ula, including The Lake, The Farm, and the greater South Shore community of Kaua™i.

The inspired view from Homesite 30, makes the island feel magical and alive, as if its breathing. And that feeling permeates all those who stay here. The elevated location will inspire a home that takes advantage of the views and the uplifting feeling that comes with spaces that breathe in the surrounding elements.
