Entering the property, the circular driveway sets the tone, with a lovely Hong Kong Orchid tree at its center and a red brick extension leading to the home. The living room is lined with picture windows that perfectly frame the views. It opens to the dining and kitchen areas, creating a light-filled, welcoming atmosphere. The kitchen itself is inviting, with plenty of counter space for helpers, excellent storage, and even a pantry.

The 878 sq. ft. detached concrete block garage, built in 1994, includes three bays and twenty feet of workshop benches—plenty of room for cars, tools, a home gym, or a creative studio.
