OLD MILL SUBDIVISION, Kilauea, HI

Located in the heart of Kilauea Town, this spacious single-level home offers relaxed island living in a convenient setting. This lovely 4 bedrooms, 2.25 bath gem provides both comfort and style in one of Kauai's most desirable North Shore communities.

The open-concept design features soaring open-beam ceilings, skylights that fill the home with natural light, and rich wood-style flooring throughout. The oversized kitchen is equipped with granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, a gas stove, and a large island perfect for cooking, entertaining, or casual dining. The adjoining dining and great room flow seamlessly to a mostly enclosed lanai, the perfect spot for indoor-outdoor living, enjoying meals, or relaxing in the cool trade winds.

The 4 spacious bedrooms are thoughtfully positioned for privacy. The upgraded main bathroom features a custom tile shower. The quarter bath is located in the garage near the laundry area, along with an outdoor shower—perfect for rinsing off after the beach.

A newer roof and stucco siding provide low-maintenance living, and propane fuels both the gas stove and on-demand water heater, helping to reduce electric costs. The fully fenced front and backyard offer privacy and space for gardening, play, or future expansion, while two outdoor storage sheds provide ample room for tools, surfboards, or beach gear. The 2-car garage adds convenience and extra storage.

unique highlight of this home is the dedicated surfboard shaping room—a rare find on Kauaʻi. This flexible space could be a creative studio, workshop, or hobby area. There’s potential for an ohana unit in the garage, offering options for extended family and friends.

Conveniently located close to Kilauea town, residents enjoy charming shops, local restaurants, schools and nearby beaches. Whether used as a full-time residence or a North Shore retreat, 4299 Aalona Street captures the essence of comfortable island living in a private setting!
