Residential on 5.41 Acres

Makila Plantation II, Lahaina, HI

Welcome to 936 Punakea Loop, a truly one-of-a-kind, custom-designed residence on over 5 private acres, perched 510 feet above sea level. This exceptional modern home seamlessly integrates with its stunning natural surroundings, capturing the beauty of morning sunrises over the West Maui Mountains and unforgettable sunsets over the Pacific Ocean. The home's architectural design is sophisticated yet minimalist, with over 6,000 square feet under a cantilevered roof and expansive disappearing glass pocket doors that dissolve the boundaries between the spacious living areas and the covered grand lanai, transforming the entire space into a single, airy pavilion. Inside, floor-to-ceiling windows flood each room with ambient light and allow the island's natural beauty to take center stage. The heart of the home is its chef-inspired kitchen, featuring premium finishes, top-of-the-line appliances, and a 1,500-bottle wine room—perfect for entertaining or enjoying quiet meals at home. Designed for privacy, the light-filled primary suite and two guest bedrooms are set at opposite ends of the home. An elegant office/library, complete with a closet, offers a quiet space to focus on projects or the flexibility to serve as a fourth bedroom if desired. Offering both style and function for an exceptional living experience, this fully integrated smart home features automated lighting and shades for effortless ambiance control. For recreation and wellness, the property is unparalleled, with your own private 3-par golf course and artificial turf putting green for perfecting your short game. A fully equipped fitness studio caters to all exercise needs, while a private outdoor healing platform, peacefully nestled amid the trees, provides a tranquil setting for enjoying massages, practicing yoga, or meditation. This residence is more than just a home; it is a lifestyle destination where luxury, nature, and modern convenience coexist in perfect harmony.
