Residential on 0.09 Acres

N/A, Wailuku, HI

Rare Historic Gem in the Heart of Old Wailuku Town! Built in 1936, this unique property once served as the Okinawa Kenjinkai gathering hall—a meaningful part of Maui's local heritage. Featuring high ceilings and 1,032 sq. ft. of interior space, the home offers a peekaboo ocean view from the back room. The lot offers parking for up to 4 vehicles, the property also includes generous storage space beneath the house. Located just across from the beloved Takamiya Market, this home sits in the historic core of Wailuku. With thoughtful renovation, this property holds strong rental income potential. A rare opportunity to own a piece of Maui's history. Survey was completed April 2025.
