Land on 29.77 Acres

N/A, Kaupo, HI

This 30-acre lot has sweeping ocean and mountain views along with all the privacy & tranquility that is characteristic of the region. The property’s terrain offers a multitude of choices for building and development. Kaupo is believed to be where the first Polynesians landed on Maui. It's a place with a rich history and many preserved cultural sites. Ancient Hawaiians called it Wahipana, “Special Place”. The property is located off the Kaupo Gap Road, which is a natural feature of Haleakala National Park, gateway to exploring the Park's trails. A trail through the Kaupo Gap leads to the top of the volcano, winding through old Koa forests and dense rainforests. This is a rare opportunity to own a pristine slice of old Hawaii. Currently the owners are negotiating access through adjacent land. A new owner will need to continue the process.
