Basking in the breathtaking beauty of Maui, perched just 25 feet from the shoreline, 51 Hui Road E is more than an oceanfront estate — it is a living work of art. Built entirely in reinforced concrete and completed with precise craftsmanship, this timeless villa is as enduring as the island itself. Each pillar sinks deep into the volcanic foundation, giving this island masterpiece a quiet strength that mirrors the steady rhythm of the Pacific. Its proximity to the ocean can never be duplicated. The exotic architecture fuses Mediterranean grace with tropical ease. It celebrates both endurance and grace. It is a home designed, not merely to exist beside the ocean, but to belong to it — to draw strength from its power and beauty from its calm. Its most recognizable feature, a glowing orange palapa overlooking the ocean is perfect for casual outdoor living and dining. It offers surreal views of shimmering sunsets that stretch to the jewels of Lanai and Molokai as well as a serene vantage for watching whales in season. Steps away, the heated pool finished in mosaic tile mirroring the sea and an inset spa await. Garden pools, a koi pond, and lush, mature landscaping enhance the setting. Inside the villa unfolds in layers of artistry and intimacy. The grand salon with its 17-foot vaulted ceilings, arched colonnades, Italian fountain, and romantic star shaped skylights set a tone of cultivated elegance. The chef's kitchen discretely tucked away, honors traditional European service design — a private culinary domain outfitted with professional appliances, handcrafted cabinetry, and artisanal tile work. The primary suite is an ode to serenity. A four-poster bed faces an arched lanai framed in tropical vines opening to the sea beyond. Morning light spills across white stone floors while a hand-tiled fireplace and soft coastal hues evoke both romance and repose. In the adjoining bath, marble, crystal, and natural light converge. A soaking tub is framed by palms and ocean views. The library reveals the home’s most personal voice: coral-colored walls, a hand-painted ceiling, and imported carved wooden doors that open into a space of warmth. A place where art, books, and tropical light are in quiet harmony. A second wing includes guest accommodations, a magnificent wine storage area, and laundry facilities. Gates to the property open to a large motor court and garage with ocean views as well as custom work bench and additional storage. The immense substructure offers additional flexibility, not included in living area square footage. Minutes from Kapalua Resort, yet entirely private, 51 Hui Road E stands as one of Maui’s most extraordinary oceanfront estates “ where art, engineering, and the eternal rhythm of the Pacific meet in perfect harmony.
