This charming, classic Plantation Home, located near the end of a quiet country road, offers privacy and exudes the charm and warmth of a day gone by. Positioned on over 2 acres of lush, edible landscaping, this one offers ocean and beautiful garden views. Note, the sale includes two parcels which include .61 acres which has the residence plus 1.41 acres which is vacant land. Imagine the quiet privacy offered by the deep valley along its boundary. This home is coming to the market for the first time in nearly a century. Its architecture reflects its 30â€™s and 40â€™s Hawaiian style. On the exterior, the windows are beautiful, as well as the supports for the rafter tails. On the interior, the original hard-wood flooring, wainscoting wall treatment, plus the cabinets detail and kitchen seating are very special and lend themselves to this epic era. The edibles list includes several varieties of avocado, breadfruit, banana, guava, lemon, Surinam cherry, coco palm, mango, mac nuts and more.
