Lanai City, Lanai, HI

This classic Lanai'i plantation house sits on the upper portion of the lot and has extensive views of the west side of the island and great sunsets. With three bedrooms and one bath including a large kitchen and dining room opening into the large living room is quite comfortable and spacious. There is a small deck outside the front door with great views. There is a separate laundry room with its own entry that connects to the house at the kitchen. The lot is street to street and has a garage in the front of the property and also on the back street which is Ilima Avenue. The home needs work and has many possibilities. It is a great first home and priced to allow the buyer to do the necessary repairs.
